Directions for Listing.

The land listed and invoiced for taxation, must be described with sufficient certainty, to point out what particular lands are intended to be assessed. The law requires a pertinent description of the land, so as to identify the same.—Hammel vs. Smith, 15 Ohio, 134.

The land taxed must be definitely and distinctly described in the assessment; the assessment is the foundation on which rests all the subsequent proceedings.—Greene vs. Lunt, 58 Me., 518. Bolster's Tax Collector, Page 37, 41.

For examples of legal and sufficient description of real estate in listing and invoicing lands for assessment of taxes, see chapters 5 and 40 of Bolster's Digest of Laws on Tax Titles, with Tax Forms.
